

Thomas H. Marshall to George Washington, April 11,
1770, Letters to Washington and Accompanying Papers.
Published by the Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Edited by Stanislaus Murray Hamilton.

FROM THOMAS H. MARSHALL, ESQ.

Wednesday Evening 11th. April 1770

SIR/

Am greatly obliged to you, for the Trouble you have Given your self in Leting me no Mr West is to be Down this Evening, or in the Morning; tho cannot at this Time Promis my self the Least Prospect of Joining you, As Mrs. Marshall (who has been much aleing for sum time Past) is this day so Ill, (that without a Great amendment) cannot by any meens Leve her, Should that be the Case, Weather &c. Permiting you may Depend I will be over in the Morning Arly,

I am Sir Yr Most Hble servt. THO HAN. MARSHALL

NB. Should I not be at your Hous by Eight oClock, in the Morning you may take for Granted I cannot Leve home—